

POLITICAL SCIENCE YEARLY COURSES 2010-11

Updated: Dec 22, 2010

Course#	Title	Fall	Winter	Spring
101	Freshman Seminar	Druckman Campaign 2010 Alter Human Rights in International Politics Christov Utopias in the History of Political Thought Kernell Comparative Political Parties Stueplnagel The Press and Presidential Politics	Christov Utopia in the Political Imagination	Toender Who is the subject of democracy? De Francesco-Soto Latino Politics
201	Introduction to Political Theory	Christov	Stevens
220	American Government and Politics		Sweet	De Francesco Soto
230	Introduction to Law in the Political Arena	Iris	Skogan
240	Introduction to International Relations	Spruyt		Loriaux
250	Introduction to Comparative Politics	Roberts		Riedl
259	Contemporary African Politics		Joseph
301	Ancient and Medieval Political Thought			Monoson
302	Early Modern Political Thought Some Knowledge of Political Theory is desirable		Christov
303	Modernity and its Disconnects			Dietz
310	Methods of Political Inference This is an introduction to research methods that does not presume any prior familiarity with the subject.			Mahoney
311	Logics of Political Inquiry	Martin
312	Statistical Research Methods This course is only for students who already have taken a course in statistics		Seawright
320	The Presidency Pre Req 220		Galvin

Course#	Title	Fall	Winter	Spring
321	Community Political Processes Pre Req 221		Skogan
323	Public Opinion & Voting Behavior Pre Req 220	Chong
324	Political Parties & Elections	Page
325	Congress and the Legislative Processes Pre Req 220		Harbridge
326	Race and Public Policy			Burch
330	Politics of Local Justice		Iris
331	Politics of the Supreme Court Pre Req 220 or 230	Sweet
332	Constitutional Law I Pre Req 220 or 230			Sweet
333	Constitutional Law II: Civil and Political Rights Pre Req 220 or 230
340	International Relations Theory	Zangl
341	International Political Economy Pre Req PS240		Nelson
343	International Law			Alter
344	US Foreign Policy	Caverley
345	National Security		Caverley
348	Globalization Pre Req 240			Nelson
349	International Environmental Politics	Wolinsky
350	Social Movements			Pearlman
353	Politics in Latin American		Seawright
354	Southeast Asian Politics		Winters

Course#	Title	Fall	Winter	Spring
370	The Fate of the State in a Globalizing World		Hanson
390	Special Topics in Political Science	Bouton The Rise of Asia Defrancesco-Soto Political Marketing Reno Conflict & Civil Wars	Pearlman Middle East Politics Rice The Politics of Humanitarian Aid	Stueplnagel Politics, the Press and Presidential Campaigns Joseph Democracy in the Developing World Ruffer The Politics of International Human Rights Toender Politics of Pain, Tolerance, and Torture
394	Professional Linkage Program	Rielly US Foreign Pol: Kennedy/Obama Gordon Reforming Politics and Securing our Democracy
395	Political Research Seminar	Honig Sophocles' Antigone in the 5th and 21st centuries Martin Political Parties and Political Competition Dominguez Latinos and Politics Roberts Designing a Constitution	Pearlman Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Chong Ideology in American Politics Wolinsky Global Climate Change Loriaux The Political Thought of Emmanuel Levinas	Wolinsky Civic Participation and the Environment Joseph Aid, Governance, and Development in Africa Christov Cosmopolitanism Harbridge Party Polarization Galvin Party Change in America Alter International Organizations and National Policy